

Reasons to visit and invest in the tourism sector in Mozambique

1. A long tropical coastline with pristine beaches framed by palm trees and warm blue sea.
2. A vibrant urban nightlife with hotels, restaurants and nightclubs;
3. Historical buildings of the 16th to the 19th centuries at Mozambique Island proclaimed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO;
4. Fishing from traditional Arab dhows used in the past throughout the east African coast for the transport of slaves;
5. Blue-water sailing and game-fishing that attracts anglers from all over the world in search of marlin, barracuda and sailfish among other species;
6. Busy, colourful markets with their typical animation and odours;
7. A vibrant mix of African, Portuguese and Arab cultures contribute to the unique tropical Mediterranean feeling in the country;
8. A diversity of Asiatic, Arab, African and Portuguese tastes in the gastronomy of the country
9. An abundance of birdlife in the Bazaruto Archipelago;
10. The beautiful scenery of the Bazaruto and Quirimba Archipelagos;
11. Leisure and recreational adventure at Vilanculos and Pemba;
12. Trips from the coast to the interior of the country and vice-versa;
13. Fishing, diving, hunting and game-viewing in the reserves and parks throughout the country.